OAK HILL FARMS CO-OP CONDUCT AGREEMENT

Positive behavior is a key expectation for youth and adults participating in the Oak Hill Farms Co-Op. Positive behavior reflects trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, care and good citizenship. Participants are expected to fully participate, follow all program guidelines and behave appropriately to ensure a high-quality learning experience and ensure the safety of all participants.

Theft, vandalism, leaving the co-op premises or boundaries (except for trips arranged as part of the program) and other such offenses are strictly prohibited. Anyone involved with these offenses will immediately be sent home at his or her own expense. Those engaged in illegal activities will be turned over to the proper authorities. Repair costs for damages incurred to property will be billed to those responsible.

Students will be sent home for inappropriate sexual behavior and behavior that violates the rights of others, particularly when the behavior is disrespectful in regards a person's gender, race, age, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, disability or appearance. You may not tease, hurt or bully anyone, or use language, gestures or actions that will hurt others. Disciplinary action will vary based on the degree of the offense and will be determined by the adults in charge.

Participants are responsible for their own belongings. Valuables, such as expensive jewelry and electronic devices, should be left at home. Oak Hill Farms will not be responsible for any lost or missing items. Participants should dress casually, but neatly and appropriately, for the occasion.

I have read and agree that my child(ren) will abide by this code of conduct.
